Section 330 sets forth the criteria for the award of compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded . . . the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

- (a) the time spent on such services; the rates charged for such services;
- (b) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

- (c) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (d) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

As set forth more fully in prior monthly applications, which are incorporated herein by reference, and this Application, in accordance with the factors set forth above, approval of the fees requested for the Final Fee Period is fair and reasonable given (a) the complexity of these cases; (b) the time expended; (c) the nature and extent of the services rendered; (d) the value of such services; and (e) the costs of comparable services in other cases under this title. In addition, the out-of-pocket disbursements for which reimbursement is sought were actual, reasonable, and necessary costs (i) incurred while providing services for the Debtors; and (ii) preserving the value of the Debtors' estates.

31. WHEREFORE, RPA respectfully requests that the Court authorize that the amounts sought herein be approved for payment and for such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
